Republican-Written Strike Plan Adopted

Injunctions, Seizure Both Accepted

Washington, June 28—(AP)—In a stinging defeat for President Truman, the Senate today approved a Republican-written plan for dealing with national emergency strikes. It provides for both Taft-Hartley injunctions and for plant seizure by the government.

The plan was adopted by a vote of 60 to 40, and was thus made a part of the administration's bill to replace the Taft-Hartley act with a new labor law. President Truman campaigned for repeal.

Adoption of the amendment at a tumultuous Senate session was an important victory for Senator Taft (R-Ohio) and others who are battling to keep the basic provisions of the present law.

The national emergency amendment was sponsored by Taft and Senators Donnell (R-Mo.) and Smith (R-N.J.). The Senate approved it after first battling down three other plans for handling strikes.

Below galleries crowded with spectators, the Senate did these things in this order:

1. Defeated, 54 to 37, an amendment by Senator Holland (D-Pa.) to preserve the Taft-Hartley emergency injunction provision. The amendment would not have authorized seizure of struck plants. Neither does the Taft-Hartley act.

2. Rejected, 46 to 44, an amendment by Senator Lucas (Ill.) the democratic leader, to strike the injunction provision from Taft's injunction-plus-seizure plan. Under the Lucas proposal, only seizure of plants would have been authorized.

3. Turned down, 51 to 40, a proposal by Senator Ives (R-N.Y.) to have Congress deal with national emergency strikes on a case-by-case basis. The Senate defeated the same plan last week, 67 to 13.

4. Approved, 50 to 40, the Taft-Donnell-Smith plan for keeping the Taft-Hartley injunction feature and adding a provision for government seizure of struck plants for up to 90 days.

Love Of Adventure Ends With Thrills For Boy Campers

Childress, Texas, June 28—(P)—There's nothing like a little camping trip. But nine Childress boy scouts have had enough for a while. Early this month they left on their annual tour through Colorado, New Mexico, Wyoming and Utah.

Near Ouray, Utah, they decided to descend the Green river in four boats, loaded with their camping gear. They sent their bus—the miles where they were to reassemble.

The third day on the river, three of the four boats capsized in the rapids. One scout, David Jameson, went overboard and was unable to swim. He had a life preserver tied around him, and was rescued.

One boy was lost for five hours after the mishap. A searching party got scratched up looking for him. The loss from the over-turned boats: four pairs of pants, six pairs of shoes, one rifle, tenting, and bedding—and the three boats.

They found a hermit living in a shack. He fed them and gave shoes to two scouts. Two other scouts were wearing rags around their feet. The hermit after the scouts had rested two days, drew a map for them. It showed where they would find the highway where the bus was waiting.

Two boys detailed an advance party on the way out got lost. So did the boys following them. Eventually they reached the spot marked on the map. It was in an intersection of four highways. There was no bus. They tried all four highways for several miles each way.

They were dead tired. A local rancher happened by in a truck. They loaded wearily into the truck, eventually found their bus.

Now they're home. Another camping trip? No, they're satisfied.

Father Sentenced For Beating Child

Yakima, Wash., June 28—(P)—Walter Minion, a warehouse worker, was sentenced today to a maximum of 10 years in the state reformatory for beating his 41-year-old daughter.

Race Question Raised In Housing Measure

Washington, June 28—(P)—The race issue was injected into the housing bill battle today, but the House promptly defeated an amendment that would have prevented segregation in publicly-owned housing projects. The vote was 168 to 130.

With this major hurdle cleared, the House quit, postponing a final vote until tomorrow.

The race amendment, offered by Rep. Fulton (R-Pa.) would have permitted White and Negro tenants to occupy the same public housing buildings. It read:

"There shall be no discrimination against any person because of race, color, religion or national origin in the rental or occupancy of any housing constructed under the provisions of this act."

Earlier, a tie vote narrowly saved Mr. Truman's housing bill from a "home rule" amendment that would have barred publicly-owned housing in any city unless its voters first approved it.

On the "home rule" referendum amendment, Rep. Boggs (D-La.) presiding at the time, announced the vote as 132 to 132. He quickly added:

"The chair votes no, and the amendment is defeated." (A tie vote would have killed the amendment without Boggs' vote.)

Republicans were virtually solid in their support of the Fulton amendment, but were aided by only a scattering of Democrats.

There was no record vote, but Rep. Powell, Negro Democrat from New York, was seen standing for the amendment, while the other Negro member, Rep. Dawson (D-Ill.) stood against it.

Vatican Accused Of Masterminding Battle With State

Prague, Czechoslovakia, June 28—(P)—Communist officials and the press today accused chief officials in the Vatican's diplomatic mission here of masterminding alleged subversive activities against the state.

Diplomatic quarters said these direct attacks on the Holy See's representation may pressage a demand for the recall of the alleged plotters.

The attacks were accompanied by publication of a new batch of orders which sought to break the last link of communication between Archbishop Josef Beran and his bishops and Czechoslovakia's 9,000,000 Roman Catholics and clergy.

A Prague church official said a police crackdown on priests who read the Archbishop's pastoral letter from their pulpits last Sunday was well underway. Many priests were being fined and arrested, this source reported, but there was no way of telling the total.

Women's Boycott Of Paper Protests Hawaiian Strike

Honolulu, June 28—(P)—A women's boycott against the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, which lasted for a week, demonstrates the high tensions arising from Hawaii's two-month-old waterfront strike.

The women's boycott was stopped by a counter-campaign led by Honolulu's business leaders. The women wanted the Star-Bulletin to take a strong stand against the strikers.

A spokesman for business leaders declared they acted in the conviction that money pressure on a newspaper was a dangerous abridgement of the freedom of the press.

As a further example of the anger arising as the effects of the strike increase and unemployment spreads is the case of the Honolulu Advertiser.

The striking International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union used the Advertiser for libels. The Advertiser, which is outspoken in opposition to the strike, in turn sued the ILWU for libel.

The women, who deny any group organization, applied pressure this way:

When an advertisement appeared in the Star-Bulletin, the women began calling the store or writing letters.

In effect, they said: "Unless you stop advertising in the Star-Bulletin, I must tell you that my husband and I will never trade at your store again."

Jackson County Clerk Indicted

Murphysboro, Ill., June 28—(P)—Fred M. Fraser, circuit clerk of Jackson County, was indicted today on two counts by a grand jury.

The Jackson County grand jury charged Fraser with embezzlement of about $4,700 in office funds, and malfeasance in office.

He was to be arraigned before Circuit Judge Loyd M. Bradley later today. He was expected to post a total of $12,000 bond pending the next circuit court term starting Sept. 12. Fraser has been continuing his duties.

Alabama Prohibits Klan Mask In Move To End Terrorism

Montgomery, Ala., June 28—(P)—Alabama ripped the mask off the Ku Klux Klan and kindred organizations today in a move to halt a wave of hooded terrorism.

Legislation to prohibit the wearing of masks in public was signed into law by Gov. James E. Folsom within minutes after it passed the House of representatives by an 84-4 vote.

The ink was hardly dry on the anti-masking act before the governor announced he will issue an executive order calling the new law to the attention of law enforcement officers and ordering them to enforce it rigidly.

It was the second blow aimed at the Klan during the day. Attorney General Albert A. Carmichael a few hours earlier urged members of the legislature to pass a separate law to revoke the Klan charter.

Carmichael branded the hooded organization as "injurious" to the state and blamed its members for "floggings, terrorization and other lawless demonstrations contrary to all accepted concepts of decency and good order."

House passage of the anti-masking bill took only four minutes and came without a word of argument.

Final Arguments In Coplon Trial Heard By Jury

Washington, June 28—(P)—Prosecutor John M. Kelley, Jr., denounced Judith Coplon at the end of her espionage trial today as a "clever spy" for Russia and said Moscow chose her because "she hated the United States."

"Don't think the Russian espionage agents picked Judith Coplon hastily," Kelley told the jury in his closing argument.

"You may be sure they penetrated that look of innocence. They found precisely what they wanted. They found a girl willing to sell out her country—a girl who was quick-witted, alert. They found a clever spy."

For the defense, Attorney Archibald Palmer contended that the government's case against Miss Coplon is a "frame-up" engineered by the justice department to escape criticism from congress.

"There is not a single scintilla of evidence," the defense lawyer shouted in a dramatic appeal to the jury. "The government has built this case on lies, half-truths and innuendoes."

Defense and prosecution attorneys fell into a stormy row as the long-drawn trial entered its final stages. With Palmer's shouting objections and Kelley's bitter denials, Palmer's assertion that the whole case was "framed."

Government Ends Cross Examination Of Alger Hiss

New York, June 28—(P)—The U.S. government finished its cross examination of Alger Hiss today, clearing the way for an early verdict at his federal perjury trial.

His slender wife, Priscilla, followed Hiss to the witness stand.

She was one of the few witnesses remaining to be called before the case is turned over to the jury.

Ex-communist Whittaker Chambers accused her of helping her husband feed state department secrets to a prewar Russian spy ring.

During his final hours under government questioning, Hiss denied every knowing runaway communist. He said he never met or ever gave a verbal tip of war with his over Red recruiting.

Hiss' cross examination at the hands of assistant U.S. Attorney Thomas F. Murphy began yesterday. It was relatively mild and ended in mid-afternoon today.

Branch Factory Champaign, Ill., June 28—(P)—The

Dennison manufacturing company, Framingham, Mass., announced today it has bought 24 acres of land in Champaign for a branch factory.

Filibuster Against Gas Tax Continues To Delay House

Special Session Considered

Springfield, Ill., June 28—(AP)—Gov. Stevenson said tonight special legislative session is a "possibility" he has discussed with advisors.

However, he told a news conference:

"I don't see that a special session will be necessary at all if the sales tax bills are approved."

The governor referred to three House-approved measures which he is counting on for $25,000,000 a year in added revenue. He said he understood the republican Senate would vote on them a second time tomorrow, and he is "optimistic" of the outcome.

One Postponed
On a roll call yesterday, one of the bills failed to muster enough votes and further consideration was postponed. Stevenson said calling the legislature back during the summer or fall was one alternative if the sales tax extension bills were killed.

The other alternative, he said, would be to veto enough appropriations to balance expenditures for the next two years with estimated resources.

No Change In School Aid
The governor said he is not considering any change in his $112,000,000 school aid program, which the Senate is expected to okay and send to him tomorrow.

He said he didn't believe it is possible to veto any portion of the school appropriation.

Republican senators meanwhile, blasted Stevenson with a statement charging him with "irresponsible planning which has resulted in the chaos now so evident in the closing hours" of the regular session ending Thursday.

Young Republicans Come To Defense Of Older Leaders

Helena, Mont., June 28—(P)—A national officer of the young republicans came to the defense of the party's older leaders today.

O. Louise Replogle of Lewistown, Mont., national co-chairman of the young republicans, said her organization is going to work "shoulder to shoulder" with other republicans.

She took exception to an Associated Press report that leaders of the young republicans "have their political knives out for the GOP 'old guard'." This is "wholly without foundation," she said today in a statement made to the press.

The reference to widespread opposition to the party's "old guard" was contained in a story written yesterday from Salt Lake City where the young republicans held their national convention last week. The session was a stormy one with considerable criticism of the party leadership voiced on and off the floor of the convention.

British Rail Union Votes Slowdown

London, June 28—(P)—Britain's largest rail union tonight rejected a new government wage offer and voted to start a slowdown on the nationalized railroads July 4.

The slowdown resolution was voted at meeting of the National Union of Railwaymen.

It called on the union's 460,000 members to work no more than 44 hours a week. Many had been working overtime.

Attendance Sporadic The senator answered his last senate roll call May 27, 1947. His attendance had been sporadic for about four years before then.

If he had delayed the resignation until after July 8, under state law Dewey could have named a successor to serve until the end of Wagner's term next year.

On the Democratic side, former Gov. Herbert H. Lehman is thought to be the first choice. He lost to Irving M. Ives, Republican, in a 1946 senate race by 250,000 votes, but ran almost 400,000 ahead of his ticket.

Dewey is expected to name as Wagner's successor the man chosen by GOP leaders to make the race in the special election.

Mentioned among the Republican hopefuls have been William J. Donovan, wartime head of the office of strategic services; Lt. Gov. Joe R.

Lewis' No Strike Bid Rejected By Operators

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., June 28—(P)—The legal and other risks involved prompted soft coal operators of the north and west today to reject John L. Lewis' no-strike proposal based on a three-day week.

There were indications, however, that the United Mine Workers' chief refused to take "no" as a final answer.

Meanwhile, southern soft coal operators who have been engaged in separate talks with the union at Bluefield, W. Va., reported they had been told their pits will be closed by a strike next Tuesday unless a new contract is signed. They, as members of the southern coal producers association, have not been offered the "no strike and three days a week" plan.

Production represented at the White Sulphur talks totals 297,733, 674 tons annually, negotiators announced today. The southerners produce about 97,000,000 tons a year.

The 1948 contract, which expires Thursday at midnight, was signed by operators whose output totaled 460,000,000 tons. Any soft coal strike would start July 6, when the nation's 400,000,000 so. coal miners end their current 10-day vacation.

The north-west negotiators who conveyed the peace plan to their companies over the weekend brought back their answer to Lewis in late afternoon.

Defense Chief Asks Direct Authority Over Services

Washington, June 28—(P)—Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson asked for more power today. He said he could save the government more than a billion dollars a year if he gets it.

In his first formal appearance before the House armed services committee, Johnson urged approval of a bill that would do two main things: increase the defense secretary's direct authority over the services, and give all the armed forces a single civilian business manager. The bill passed the senate a month ago.

The secretary, who speaks forcefully, also said:

"I have never had to operate the Marine Corps or Naval aviation, and anyone who says he wants to is a liar."

Declared "certain people" have been circulating "lies" about him, about the B-36 bomber, and about the powers in the proposed bill. He did not elaborate.

The bill, first proposed by Johnson's predecessor, the late James V. Forrestal, would phrase the secretary's powers in new words. He now can establish "general" policies, and exercise "general" control. The bill would drop the word "general."

Symington Reports Agreement Near On Bendix Strike

South Bend, Ind., June 28—(P)—An end to the 70-day strike at the Bendix Aviation Corp., maker of vital airplane engine and automobile parts, seemed in sight today.

After a prolonged conference in Washington with representatives of the plant management and striking CIO-Air Auto Workers, Secretary of Air Symington announced this morning an agreement had been reached to end the walkout.

The 6,100 members of the Bendix local will vote at 3 p. m. (Central Daylight Time) tomorrow on whether to accept the agreement.

The terms were withheld pending the vote of the workers and further study by the union and management representatives.

Meanwhile, pickets remained on duty at ten gates of the huge plant, which makes a variety of automotive and aviation parts.

The strike started April 20 after discharge of 47 workers on slowdown charges. The union demanded their reinstatement and an adjustment in the take-home pay of certain workers in the brake shoe department. The union also insisted upon dismissal of a damages suit which the company filed against it in federal district court. The suit asked cumulative damages for every day of the strike and the amount now totals about $2,000,000.

Korean Troops Reported Engaged In Heavy Fighting

Lake Success, June 28—(P)—Northern and southern Korean troops equipped with artillery and machine guns are engaged in heavy fighting, the United Nations Korean commission officially reported today.

One U. N. source here said the conflict on Ongjin Peninsula in the U. S.-backed southern republic amounted to a civil war but the U. N. could do little at this stage except observe it.

The commission said its members saw many burned houses in an inspection trip to the fighting area Sunday. It estimated half of the inhabitants of some villages are homeless.

The battle is south of the western end of the 38th parallel, which divides the Soviet-sponsored democratic people's republic of Korea (northern) from the republic of Korea (southern). The southern regime has been recognized by the United Nations and by several governments as the only legal government of Korea.

May Prevent Vote On Many Major Bills

BULLETIN
Springfield, Ill., June 28—(AP)—The Illinois House tonight advanced the nickel gas tax bill for a possible passage vote not later than Thursday. But the supporters of the bill failed by six votes to get the minimum 77 they will need to pass it, and opponents predicted the bill won't become law.

However, during intermittent breaks in the filibuster's solid front, the House was able to squeeze in passage votes on a small number of bills. Only two days are left before the scheduled window of the legislature's six month session.

Among bills passed were three to set up a state reformatory for youthful offenders at Sheridan, Ill.

Three more receiving approval despite the filibuster would create a separate board of trustees for Southern Illinois University at Carbondale for a trial two year period.

Led By Rep. Lewis
The filibuster had been in progress nearly seven hours when the House recessed at 5 p. m. The slow-down resumed at 8:40 p. m. before crowded galleries when the night session began.

Every hour it continued hampered enactment chances of many of the 278 bills listed early today on the clogged house work sheet.

A band of five legislators led by Rep. John W. Lewis (R-Marshall) launched the filibuster when the House convened at 10:40 a. m.

Only 15 bills were passed during the entire session before the recess. Democratic House leaders then went into a huddle with Gov. Stevenson's aides to discuss possible ways of halting the slowdown.

Lewis' announced purpose to defeat the gas tax bill. Some legislators said if his dilatory tactics prevent any action on it before midnight Wednesday he would accomplish his aim.

The bill has not yet been advanced on the House calendar to the position where it could be called for a vote.

Lewis, a husky, ruddy-cheeked former and auctioneer from Clark county in Southeastern Illinois, started the filibuster with an objection that the official record of Monday's House proceedings was not on his desk.

He demanded that no work be done until the record was printed, distributed to House members, and approved by them. When other lawmakers tried to out-manuever him, Lewis called upon the House to adjourn.

He was beaten on the roll call, but with the support of his supporters, he succeeded in forcing four other lengthy votes on parliamentary questions.

Joining him were Reps. Sieta Kamp (R-Watseka), Clinton J. Searle (R-Rock Island), W. O. Verhines (R-Vienna) and J. Lisle Lauffer (R-Hampshire).

Fifth Baby Victim Of Strange Illness

Lake Wales, Fla., June 28—(P)—A fifth newborn babe was fighting today to stave off the strange "blue time" death that stalked through a hospital nursery here, claiming four tiny lives.

Latest victim of the illness, marked by come-and-go blue skin (discoloration, was 11-day-old child Edward Lamb, Jr.

The five infants became ill June 21, just a few hours after using a batch of diapers marked with a new line dye, a coal tar derivative. The first baby succumbed Saturday.

Meanwhile, State Attorney General W. W. Woolfolk's office began an investigation.

Our Relations With China May Be Told Soon

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Secretary of State Acheson says the complete inside story of American relations with China may be told soon. It should be a best seller.

This statement was more or less coincident with two striking developments in the U. S. Senate. In one case several senators took the floor to criticize the American policy toward China. In the other 21 senators (15 Republicans and 6 Democrats) sent President Truman a letter asking for assurances that the United States wouldn't recognize the Communist regime but would continue to support the Nationalist government.

Delicate Matter

Observers figure that this senatorial reaction may speed publication of the report. However, it is clear that any detailed discussion of the American government's feelings about China might be a decidedly delicate matter. After all, it will be passing strange if the state department hasn't had some poignant criticisms to make of Chinese Nationalist inefficiency. That wouldn't be of much comfort or aid to a government fighting for its life against Communism.

Naturally the paramount questions involved are those raised in the senatorial letter—whether America shall continue to support the Nationalist government and whether she shall refuse to recognize a Communist government. Satisfactory answers call for much more detail than is implied in the general phrasing of the questions.

Following Dry Cleaners Will Be Closed July 4th to 11th:
Hunters Cleaners

Schrock's Cleaners
Loren Cleaners

By Robert E. Bradley

Every Friday night the cries of excited youngsters ring forth from the basement of the Trinity Episcopal church and from the Parish house there. Anything might be taking place from a boxing match to a lecture on hygiene.

The reason for all this activity stems from an idea of the Trinity Men's club. The club decided that it might be of help to a lot of kids around town if it would provide organized activity for them. The result has been the Trinity East Side Boy's Club.

This is no sissy outfit by a long way. The emphasis is on movement, and there is a lot of that. Added to classes in boxing are such muscle builders as hiking, calisthenics, group games, and on down the list. The Boy's Club claims that it has the best softball players in the league. Not that they win all their games, but all are ready to admit that champions lose once in a while.

Quieter Moments

It would be erroneous to conclude that the boys do not have their quieter moments. The Most Reverend Reginald Harris, pastor at Trinity, said that lectures on subjects as widely varied as health and photography are given.

"The boys are taught to use their hands, too," he said. "Our instructors teach them how to make gadgets that will be useful to them."

Though the Boy's Club is sponsored by the Men's Club at Trinity church, no particular religion is required for the boys. Some of them, Father Harris said, have decided to form a Sunday school class, but this was voluntary.

"All we do is to urge them to go to church someplace," he said.

There are two problems that are pressing the club. One is its popularity. Membership finally has been limited to 50. Club officials say that there is a waiting list now to take places of boys dropped out. The other problem is qualified help. Instructors are needed badly. Father Harris said, to help channel the enthusiasm of the boys into club programs.

No Particular Supervisor

Although no particular person is supervisor to the boys, Robert Bond and Claude Vasey attend most of the meetings. They are chief cooks and bottle washers and are satisfied with the title.

There is no set age to join. Generally ages range from 12 to 14. It seems as if some of the boys, however, have passed 14 and now like the club too much to leave. And no one has forced them to.

Many Jacksonville citizens and associations are becoming increasingly aware of the Boy's Club. They have been entertained by some of the service clubs, have been taken to St. Louis to see the Cardinals play, have been given free passes to the movies, and have been let in local swimming pools during the winter. This year their favorite for the Soap Box Derby is their official entry, Gary Muller.

School officials have complimented the men behind the Boy's Club for helping to contribute to the education of the future citizens of the city.

House Agriculture Committee Okays New Farm Bill

Washington, June 28 —(P)—The house agriculture committee approved today a brand new farm bill authorizing a three-crop "trial run" for the Truman administration's controversial "production payment" program for agriculture.

The measure went through on a 17-9 vote against virtually solid Republican opposition.

It sets up a major issue as Democrats and Republicans scramble for the midwest farm votes in the congressional elections next year. Some farm groups already are assailing the administration's idea as a "subsidy" and a "dole."

The measure would maintain rigid price supports, at higher levels for most crops than under the present price crop program.

High Wind, Storm Hit South Bend

South Bend, Ind., June 28 —(P)—A wind and lightning storm accompanied by heavy rain hit the downtown section of South Bend this afternoon, causing considerable damage.

Johnny Justus, 35, working atop a 372-foot high gas container being erected by the Northern Indiana Public Service company, was struck by lightning.

Fellow workmen, hampered by the high wind, lowered him to the ground with block and tackle. He was taken unconscious to a hospital and doctors said he was in "fair" condition.

House Agriculture Committee Okays New Farm Bill

Washington, June 28 —(P)—The house agriculture committee approved today a brand new farm bill authorizing a three-crop "trial run" for the Truman administration's controversial "production payment" program for agriculture.

The measure went through on a 17-9 vote against virtually solid Republican opposition.

It sets up a major issue as Democrats and Republicans scramble for the midwest farm votes in the congressional elections next year. Some farm groups already are assailing the administration's idea as a "subsidy" and a "dole."

The measure would maintain rigid price supports, at higher levels for most crops than under the present price crop program.

High Wind, Storm Hit South Bend

South Bend, Ind., June 28 —(P)—A wind and lightning storm accompanied by heavy rain hit the downtown section of South Bend this afternoon, causing considerable damage.

Fellow workmen, hampered by the high wind, lowered him to the ground with block and tackle. He was taken unconscious to a hospital and doctors said he was in "fair" condition.

Soviets Violate Blockade Lifting Pact; Halt Convoy

Berlin, June 28 —(P)—Russia touched off a new east-west squabble today by seizing a truck convoy as it approached Berlin from western Germany. The vehicles carried vital power plant machinery for west Berlin.

U. S. and British authorities quickly protested directly to Soviet military government headquarters. They said the action was in direct violation of the four-power blockade-lifting agreement.

The new incident occurred as the 38-day rail strike ended without any trains actually being moved.

It also coincided with the reopening of four-power talks—the first in 15 months—seeking to work out a "live and let live" policy for the partitioned Reich.

U. S. officials announced the truck convoy incident and said they had joined the British in a protest.

The first alliance in this country came off the Bradford Press in Philadelphia in 1687.

Shirley James And Burton Whitlock Wed In Missouri

Franklin—A pretty wedding took place last Thursday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Orville D. James, 523 N. Hawkins avenue, Hannibal, Mo., when their daughter, Shirley Evelyn, became the bride of Burton T. Whitlock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitlock of Franklin.

Rev. Kenneth Kuntz, pastor of the first Christian church, officiated in the double ring rites. Before the ceremony Miss Caroline James, sister of the bride, accompanied by Mrs. Dillard Houchins, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." The "Lord's Prayer" followed.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a street-length dress of white moire taffeta, made princess style with bustle effect. She wore a corsage of pink rosebuds and baby breath.

The bridesmaid, Miss Ninetta Graham of Kansas City, Kans., wore lavender. The bridegroom was attended by Charles McAfee, brother-in-law of the bride. A reception followed the wedding.

New Claim Filed Against Tucker: Trial Date Oct. 3

Chicago, June 28 —(P)—A claim for directing a film titled "Tucker, the man and the car" was filed today against the Tucker corporation.

The corporation now is undergoing reorganization under the federal bankruptcy act. Its president, Preston Tucker, and seven associates are under federal indictment on charges of mail fraud, violation of securities and exchange commission regulations and conspiracy.

Today Ira C. Magee of Washington D. C., claimed he was hired to direct the film for $4,000, and that all but $1,199 had been paid.

The film showed the inside of the Tucker plant and depicted a Tucker rear-engine car being tested over a trial track. Magee's attorney, Thomas Alcock, said.

The Tucker car never reached the mass-production stage. Earlier today, Federal Judge Walter J. La Bay set trial of the charges against Tucker and the seven co-defendants for Oct. 3.

The measure did not specify the trial crops, but Brannan has indicated he wants to try out his scheme on hogs, potatoes and wool.

The floral tributes were cared for by Mrs. Harold Lawrence, Mrs. Fred Bennington and Miss Phyllis Wood, granddaughters of Mrs. Wood, and Mrs. Landis Young.

Man, 29, Pleads Guilty To Vicious Slaying Of Child

Lansing, Mich., June 28 —(P)—Dudley Beatty, 29, pleaded guilty today to the vicious slaying of a little boy who asked him for an ice cream cone.

The victim was four-year-old Walter "Peewee" Eaton.

Red-eyed from weeping, Beatty, father of four children, was arraigned in Circuit Court.

With downcast head, he mumbled one word: "Guilty."

Beatty earlier related how he led Peewee to a dark vacant lot last Thursday night after the child had asked, "get me an ice cream cone, Duddie." According to inspector Paul Taylor, Beatty said he beat and slashed the boy with a broken beer bottle.

Peewee's mutilated body was found two hours later.

Police learned today that Beatty was distantly related by marriage to his victim. Beatty, who lived apart from his estranged wife and children, had often been seen playing with youngsters in the shoddy neighborhood where they lived. He told officers Peewee was his favorite.

Kankakee, Ill., June 28 —(P)—Three men who escaped last Friday from the Fort Pillow state farm near Henning, Tenn., were recaptured by police here tonight. The trio offered no resistance.

They are Johnson Hughley, 21; his brother, Oakley, 23; and Dave Heller, 21, all of Nashville, Tenn.

Police Chief Daniel E. Borgan said the men admitted sawing the bars of a second floor window at Fort Pillow and sliding down bed sheets. Borgan said they also admitted taking an automobile near the state farm and abandoning it near Tiptonville, Tenn., where they then robbed an oil station of about $600 and stole another auto.

He expressed the belief that the trio broke into a Gary, Ind., garage early last Sunday and fled with about $1,000.

Take Civil Action Under Advisement In Circuit Court

Judge L. E. Wilhite in Morgan county circuit court after hearing testimony in the suit of Frank McKenna against Dr. A. C. Kingsley, seeking to collect $4000 on two judgments notes, took the case under advisement. The case consumed practically the entire court session on Tuesday.

Several witnesses from Jacksonville and Springfield testified at the hearing.

The witnesses included Dr. Kingsley, Frank McKenna, Chief of Police Frank D. Kiloran of this city, Elmer Brooks, a former employee of Producers Dairy and Robert E. Clawson, chief investigator for the Saneation county sheriff; Nick, Chief of Police William Williams of Springfield, and Charles Williamson, former president of the Producers Dairy.

Dr. Kingsley testified that he paid McKenna the $4000 on November 18, 1946, in his office in this city. McKenna denied receipt of the money, but said that on a street in Springfield that evening Dr. Kingsley put an envelope in his coat pocket and told him it contained $4000.

Men Held Up

Later, according to the testimony in the case, as the two men were returning to Jacksonville, they were held up by armed robbers between Curran and Bates when Dr. Kingsley pulled off on a side road to investigate the condition of a tire. It was at this time, McKenna said, that a man raised from the back seat and placed a pistol against him demanding his money. McKenna said he grabbed the pistol but released it when Dr. Kingsley warned him that a second barid had him covered with a pistol from the left side of the car.

Governor's Merger Of Welfare, Public Aid Agency Killed

Springfield, Ill., June 28 —(P)—Governor Stevenson's proposal to place the Illinois public aid commission under the state welfare department went down the drain today in the Illinois legislature.

The Republican senate handed it a decisive defeat by a vote of 18 for and 25 against, with 26 required for approval. The vote followed party lines.

It was one of a series of defeats suffered by the Democratic governor to date at this session. Other parts of his program are tottering.

Opponents claimed the merger would give too much authority to the welfare director and that it might bring politics into public aid programs.

Stevenson contended the plan would save money, mean greater efficiency and do away with duplicating functions. The Democratic House passed the bill two weeks ago.

LEAVE THEM ALONE

Each May brings out the spring flowers and the accompanying anguished cries of wild flower lovers who see thousands of blossoms plucked by city people on a country excursion. The tiny petals lose their pristine beauty in a few minutes; the wilted bouquet goes into the trash can, usually within 24 hours.

The damaged plant often dies. Those that do live can't reproduce themselves and the woods and waste places are bereft of flowers come next May.

Wild flowers should be left alone. Then they'll be there to gladden the landscape next year and in the future. Vacation time is here. People will be taking trips to the fields and forests, the streams and mountains. Many will be inclined to catch some small animal, bird or reptile and bring them back to city homes.

It's a tragic mistake to take these creatures out of their natural habitat. Leave them alone for others to enjoy and to be seen next year, rather than to be brought back to the unnatural surroundings of city life, where they will most likely die.

IS THERE ONE IN YOUR FUTURE?—You're probably trying to figure out the wheels of this bizarre-looking car. But Sherry Stevens, who's stepping into the American-made Gordon car on display at the Oakland, Calif., International Auto Show, says everything is a joke. The car has four independently sprung wheels set in a diamond pattern. This gives the teardrop-shaped car a 12-foot turning radius, about half that required by a standard auto. Heralded as the car of the future, the sleek number has only one drawback. Cost to build is $5000, not including labor costs.

Springfield has fly control and Greenfield starts this week. Many cities have had fly control for several years. Jacksonville could have fly control at a cost not to exceed $1,200. If each merchant would pay $1 per month for July, August and September it could be done for less. After spraying streets the breeding places, such as city dumps, hog lots and open privies, garbage cans, should have a special spray. Each citizen should spray his own garbage pail. The city could furnish the spray and report any known places where flies are breeding. Fly control is not new. Jacksonville just isn't fly conscious yet.

From Boola Boola To Moola Moola

By Hal Boyle
New York —A— Ever wonder what happened to good old Frank Merriwell after he left Yale?
He seems to have been lost in the crush of years, but a number of old Eli's other sons have done right well by themselves.
Yes, sir, the lads who stayed up all night a quarter of a century ago, singing "Boola Boola" can sleep late now because they are making plenty of "Moola Moola."
The class of 1924 has done all right for itself. In fact I have come to the conclusion, after studying some statistics compiled for the class' 25th reunion this year, that one of the signs of a misspent life is not to have been graduated from Yale university the year Calvin Coolidge was elected president.
The statistics show that 25 years after leaving Yale the boys have an average earned income of $17,210 and an average income from all sources of $25,111. The latest single income was a tidy $400,000.
Good Steady Husbands
The boys have turned out to be good steady husbands. They carry an average of $35,262 in life insurance—enough to keep any prospective widow. Some 71 per cent have one or more servants and only 71 per cent have wives who work outside the home.
More than 82 per cent have never been fired from a job and 122 per cent were only fired once.
The class of 1924 produced only one clergyman, one coroner, one librarian, one radio broadcaster, one newspaperman and one man willing to describe himself as a philanthropist.
But it turned out 16 bankers, 31 educators, 22 insurance men, 37 lawyers, 22 investment brokers, 22 physicians and 68 manufacturers.
Today 149 men own all or part of their business, 54 own no part, six are board chairmen, 54 are company presidents, 44 are vice presidents, 36 are partners and at least 30 are full owners. Five men have already retired.
Have 626 Children
A total of only 626 children of both sexes was reported by 330 class members, indicating Yale will have to look beyond its own graduates for its future crop of freshmen. Only two men had as many as six children. Forty-two had none.
Some 194 men thought the country was in for more inflation, 90 thought prosperity would continue, 37 foresaw recession and 177 a depression.
Some 104 thought war was inevitable to 157 who didn't.
In the last election 82.7 per cent reported they voted for Thomas E. Dewey, 6.7 per cent backed Truman, 2 per cent Wallace and 8 per cent Norman Thomas.
In the matter of hobbies 63 said they preferred golf, 48 fishing, 15 music, 15 hunting, 14 skiing, 13 photography, 12 bridge, and 2 find their relaxation is Boy Scout work.
Wonder what Frank Merriwell's doing?

THEY GOT BURNED—DON'T YOU!—Three youngsters injured by firecrackers pledge their support to a campaign to prevent others from doing the same thing. They're in Chicago where the Society for the Prevention of Blindness is meeting. Left to right: Karen Dryfooth, 6, who lost the vision of one eye three years ago; Bill Kowalski, 10, who seriously injured an eye recently while watching skyrockets go off; Mrs. Ben Gray, executive secretary of the group; and Gerald Lustrio, 10, also hurt recently when a firecracker blew up in his hand.

Parts Of Jersey County Suffer Flash Floods

Jerseyville—A rain of cloudburst proportions fell during the early morning hours Monday in some sections of western and southwest Jersey county. In the immediate vicinity of Jerseyville the rain was not heavy and several miles west where rain has almost refused to fall during the current year, the rainfall was again of a light nature. In the Nutwood Levee and Drainage district area, some farmers reported that approximately four inches of rain fell in the short period that the storm swept over that area. Corn fields were badly washed and in some instances landowners and tenants reported the corn crop had been almost 100% damaged by the flash flood waters.

In some sections of Otter Creek township, a similar heavy rain estimated at three inches fell. Creeks and waterways were far out of their banks and crops in the locality were reported to have been damaged.

In some parts of the Nutwood District, the flash floods carried tons of earth and debris onto the high-ways that run along the bluffs lands. Highway maintenance men found a number of logs to be removed from the pavements in some places.

President Colledge's full name was John Calvin Coolidge.

CHICKEN AND EGG EPICURE, A SNAKE, KILLED IN JERSEY

Jerseyville—For a number of weeks, eggs and other young poultry had been disappearing from the Frank Reinsner farm in the Hosedale locality. The farm is operated by Mr. and Mrs. Hosey Holder.

Sunday afternoon Reinsner visited the farm and found a large snake coiled round a barrel in the garage. Reinsner got a target pistol and bagged the large reptile with one shot through its head. The snake had been living on eggs and chickens at the expense of the Holders, and was one of the longest reptiles killed in western Jersey county for many years. Attorney Reinsner ventured the statement that the snake was large enough to have swallowed a "Settin'" hen, which disappeared from her nest recently at the farm.

That's the way a happy Joe DiMaggio described the first baseball game he's played since April 11, back before the start of the season.

The New York Yankees' $90,000-a-year bench warmer took over his old centerfield spot and sent the full line in an exhibition game against the Giants last night at Yankee stadium.

"He didn't help much in the Yankees' 5-3 victory. He popped up weakly in four times at bat, walked once and made two easy putouts afield."

"But he was so encouraged that he is counting heavily on getting back to regular competition in the three-game series with the Red Sox, opening tonight in Boston."

"I'd like to play, and I think I can play soon," he said. He said his ailing right heel hurt some, but not much.

"I'm ready to go when I'm called on. It's up to Manager Casey Stengel," Joe added.

Stengel, who announced Joe would be in the Yankee party taking off for Boston, said he took DiMaggio's play in the exhibition game as a "sign he'll be available this week against the Red Sox."

New York, June 28.—(P)—Welterweight King Ray "Sugar" Robinson said today he intends to be a fighting champion from now on.

That depends, of course, on his defeating Kid Gavilan of Cuba in their 15-round title bout in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium July 11. The Harlem flash, through Manager George Gainsford, said he doesn't have trouble making the 147-pound welter limit and, besides, the middleweights won't have any part of him.

"Look," Gainsford said at a press conference, "let's not kid ourselves. We've beaten Jake La Motta (the new middleweight champion) four out of five times. He doesn't want to fight us now. Neither do any of the other leading middleweights. So why bother chasing after any of those guys."

"There have been rumors that Ray will turn in the welter crown after the Gavilan fight because of weight troubles," Gainsford continued. "I want to say now that he has no such intentions. He's able to make the 147 pounds and will continue as a fighting champion."

"If he's successful against Gavilan," Gainsford said, "we will be ready to defend the title within five weeks of that fight. We will ask the NBA and the New York commission to name the No. 1 challenger and will agree to meet him under suitable terms."

Gainsford admitted that Robinson had difficulty making the weight for Bernie Docusen in Chicago exactly a year ago. That, incidentally, was Robinson's last defense of the Diadem he won Dec. 20, 1946.

Can 'Fall Back On' Night Racing If Governor Approves

Chicago, June 28.—(P)—Night thoroughbred racing today need only the governor's approval to become legal in Illinois and Chicago track operators agreed it might be something to "fall back on."

The state Senate yesterday completed Illinois legislative passage of bills that would permit night racing and trotting races at the same time. The measures await the signature of Governor Adlai Stevenson.

Benjamin F. Lindheimer, executive-director of Arlington and Washington Parks where Chicago's big night racing programs flourish, said no switch to night racing would be made without concurrence of the horsemen who race at the two big tracks.

"We are living in a changing era and it may be that racing must adjust itself to conditions and problems that heretofore were never anticipated."

Robert F. Croy, president of Hawthorne race track, said "at the moment we have no intention to switch to night racing." Carey said he didn't know if his track would try a night race next year, but admitted "it's a good thing to fall back on" if afternoon crowds and mutual handles slump alarmingly.

Eddleman Forsakes Turf For Boards

Detroit, June 28.—(P)—Dwight "Dike" Eddleman, all-around University of Illinois athlete, told the Detroit Lions in a letter today that he could not play football for them next fall.

Bo McMillin, coach of the National Football League club, said Eddleman had signed instead with the tri-city Blackhawks, a professional basketball team.

McMillin said Eddleman claimed a knee injury received in high school prevented him from playing football. Draft rights to Eddleman were obtained by the Lions last spring from the Chicago Bears in exchange for tackle Jack Dugger.

Today will mark the last appearance of the Journal-Courier All-Star tennis tournament. The Chicago deadline is set for Wednesday. Fans should rush their votes to this paper Tuesday evening, so we can wire them under the deadline. Otherwise you'll miss your chance to cash in on your grandstand coaching status.

New York boxing scribes have been picking the diamonds right out of Ezzard Charles' championship belt with their scathing admonitions of the slight negro's right to the crown. We've been searching the western papers for rebuttals to the literary literature, but as yet, not a solitary sports writer has risen in defense of the N.B.A. champion.

One New York writer thought that Joe Louis may comeback and regain his title. However, the bomber waltzed through 15 rounds with Jersey Joe Walcott in much the same matter as Charles. That puts the present champ and the pastured title-holder on a par in our book. We heard both the initial Louis-Walcott meeting and the latest N.B.A. crown clash broadcasts and we're not so sure but what Ezzy did the best job against the Jersey boxer.

The second Louis-Walcott engagement was something a little more than a tea social. The two jugged around the ring in waltz time until the bomber finally returned to his old form long enough to deck the challenger. That single flash of greatness was all the marked the Joe of old. Nope, Louis is through. He was a great champion, but so was Corbett, Sullivan and Dempsey. We hope he's smart enough to leave fans with the impression they gathered when they last saw him standing over Walcott.

Another critic seems to think that a young New York light-heavy will take the title from Charles. We haven't heard of anyone setting New York rings on fire lately. Maybe a New York boxing commissioner has a six-year-old son he's grooming for the crown. And that's why they were hesitant to picking Louis' predecessor.

We think that most of the articles were written in green ink—that New York doesn't like the idea of smaller Chicago stealing the boxing limelight. The east-coast city, long the world's boxing capitol, may be seeing its predominance in the sport slipping away. Maybe the eastern fighters will remember Horace Greely's adage that advised: "Go west young man, your future awaits you there."

At any rate, Charles is the best of the lot—though it may be sorry. Whether he won the title in Chicago, New York or Timbuktu makes no difference. The sport will, without a doubt, improve. The younger fighters are still in the process of sharpening up after a hitch in the armed forces. It takes more training, after a long lay-off, to get against an opponent with only leather gloves that it does to go against a foe with a baseball bat, or toting a pigskin around right end.

Why Did You Do It John?

John Harmon, Journal-Courier advertising employee, began his annual vacation in a strange way Sunday afternoon. While golfing with friends at the local country club, he missed a three-foot putt on the number-eight green and promptly threw the white pellet into the lake. His companions were amazed at John's confidence—if he couldn't sink a three-footer, how was he going to blast out of a seven-foot water trap. The answer—John didn't even try—he broke out a different ball.

Three All-Star Posts In Each League Still Doubtful As Poll Ends

Chicago, June 28.—(P)—Three for the All-Star game in Brooklyn July 12 near an end.

Baseball's battle of ballots, already topping a record 3,000,000 votes, will close at midnight tomorrow.

In the American league, the fans were undecided about shortstop, second base, and catcher. In the National loop, competition still was close at first, third and catcher. Cass Michaels of the Chicago White Sox (863,284) and Cleveland's Joe Gordon (831,122) are dueling for the American league second base assignment. The junior circuit shortstop battle still must be settled between Eddie Joost of the Athletics (881,415) and Vern Stephens of the Red Sox (842,763). Also tip-and-tuck are Catchers Birdie Tebbets of the Red Sox (773,516) and Yogi Berra of the Yankees (711,283).

In the National league first base scrap, the Giants' Johnny Mize (684,136) could be edged by Eddie Waitkus, the hospitalized Philly star, who can't play but has 669,518 votes, and possibly Brooklyn's Gil Hodges (591,952).

Kazak, Gordon Close
Eddie Kazak of the Cardinals (872,633) and Sid Gordon of the Giants (853,142) apparently will go to the wire in their National third base feud. The starting National catcher race finds Andy Seminick of the Phils (712,358) being pressed by Brooklyn's Roy Campanella (680,852).

Let returns caused one change among leaders. Stan Musial of the Cardinals recaptured first place from Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner among National league outfielders, 1,062,487 votes to 1,048,612. The fan balloting will determine the starting personnel for the All-Star managers, Billy Southworth of the Braves and Lou Boudreau of the Indians. The pitchers, however, will be picked by the two pilots.

The leaders include:
National League
First base—Mize, New York, 684,136; Waitkus, Philadelphia, 662,518.
Second base—J. Robinson, Brooklyn, 1,109,126.

TEXAS GIRLS SHARE Medalist Honors In Golf Tourney

Lincoln, Neb., June 28.—(P)—A pair of Texas girls scorched the Lincoln Country Club course today to share medalist honors in the annual Women's Trans-Mississippi golf tourney.

Both Betty MacKinnon of Mt. Pleasant and Betsy Rawls of Austin posted sizzling 75's—four under par. Black haired Betty was three under par for the first time of her 18-hole qualifying round, after starting with a birdie on the first hole of the 6,330-yard course.

Blonde Miss Rawls was two under for her first nine, scoring an eagle on number eight, but going one over on number nine.

While those two Texans were sharing medalist honors, defending Champion Polly Riley, another Lone Star State entry and tourney favorite, was doing well.

The stocky little title-holder turned in a one-under par 78.

A stroke behind the medalist at 76 was Marjorie Lindsay, the Decatur, Ill., entry who was also rated a definite threat.

Mrs. Russell Mann, Lincoln dark horse, turned in a good 80. She won the "Trans" in 1941 and this is her first appearance in the tourney since that time.

DIES IN COLLISION

Kankakee, Ill., June 28.—(P)—William Jesse Shear, 14, recently voted the Manteno high school freshman most likely to succeed, was killed yesterday in an automobile collision. An a-plus pupil, Shear was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Shear of near Manteno.

SLUNG LOW, SWEET CHARIOT—Marceline Matlock isn't as tall as she looks. She's inspecting the ultra-streamlined Tornado Special straightaway racer that's only 41 inches high. Powered by an engine in the rear, the 18-foot-long racer is on display at the Oakland, Calif., International Auto Show. Owner-designer Lee Chapel hopes to hit the 200-mph mark when he races it for the first time on the Mohave Desert July 17.

Big Leagues Show Attendance Drop Of Nearly 400,000

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The majors are headed for an attendance decline from last year's record breaking totals, comparative figures showed today.

With most of the 16 clubs having played nearly half their 77 home games, a check revealed that only six clubs are ahead of last year's figures.

Through games of last night, a total of 8,588,438 fans paid to watch the teams in action, as compared to the 8,965,152 who saw the same number of games in 1948. That is a drop of 376,714.

At this rate, the majors are certain to fall approximately a million behind last year's record figure of 20,943,345.

The Cleveland Indians have suffered the biggest drop, having drawn about 145,000 fewer fans than in '48 at a corresponding date.

Cincinnati, Detroit, the New York Giants and Philadelphia Phils are others which have fallen 100,000 below last year's figures.

The Pittsburgh Pirates show the biggest gain, 180,000 more than last year. The Chicago White Sox, Washington Senators, Boston Braves, Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals also are ahead of their '48 figures.

Lemon Twirls, Bats Indians To Victory

Cleveland, June 28.—(P)—Bob Lemon pitched effectively in the pinches and drove in what proved to be the winning run as the Cleveland Indians defeated the Detroit Tigers 4-2 tonight before about 50,000 fans.

Lemon hit a double to left field to score Bob Kennedy in the third inning with the score tied 2-2. Virgil Trucks was the losing pitcher.

NBA Approves Lightheavy Bout

Cincinnati, June 28.—(P)—A 15-round return bout between champion Joey Maxim of Cleveland, and Gus Lesnevich of Glifside, N.J., for the NBA-recognized American lightweight boxing crown was approved formally today by the Cincinnati boxing commission.

The bout will be staged by promoters Sam and Benny Becker at Crosley Field, Sept. 19.

The Beckers reportedly lost $40,000 when Maxim won the title from Lesnevich here a month ago.

Pollet Blanks Cubs, Redbirds Win 5 To 0

St. Louis, June 28.—(P)—Howie Pollet pitched his second shutout of the year as his St. Louis Cardinals teammates pushed across five runs for a 5-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs tonight. Pollet allowed eight hits—three of them doubles—and struck out five.

The Redbirds' runs—all off starter Bob Chipman—were bunched, two in the third inning and three more in the seventh.

Red Schoendienst doubled home Del Rice and Chuck Diering for the first two. Nippy Jones opened the seventh with a double. He scored on Marty Marion's single. Then Marion took second on the throw to the plate and scored on Rice's single.

Diering hit safely and on Hank Edwards' wild throw Rice went home. Gene Mauch, Heinie Reich and Andy Pafko doubled for the Cubs but didn't get past second. Roy Smalley was the only Cub to reach third. That was in the fifth when he and Hal Jeffcoat each singled.

Joelito Joe also handled six chances and ended the game by gathering in Ted Williams' fly with the tying run on third base. Allie Reynolds, who needed help from Joe Page in the ninth, turned in his eighth win against one defeat.

CLIPPED ANGEL

Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

By Clive Grieron Cornish

THE STORY: Mike McTag, a mining engineer, is working for beautiful, high-spirited Cory Parrell, trying to find out why the mine she inherited from her father has failed off in production. Mike, with his own ideas about women and mining, believes the mine is playing out. After checking figures of Riggs, the mine assayer, Mike secretly takes some samples and ships them to his own office for another assay. But as he starts to ship the ore he notices that the knots on the sample bags had been tampered with. So Mike returns to the mine and takes another sampling and labels these Lot B. To distinguish from Lot A, which he had obtained previously. Afterward, he has a talk with "Uncle Jake" Whinnaker, who has been with the mine for many years. Uncle Jake says that if the mine plays out, it won't be easy for him to start somewhere else.

VIII
NEXT morning I was still feeling sorry for Uncle Jake and his forlorn attempt to smile when he said he hoped I'd find a new vein.

It was likely he knew how to run the Dark Angel because he'd grown old with it. But put him in unfamiliar surroundings and he'd be lost. He was the faithful servant, worn out in the service of his employer, and now facing disaster through no fault of his own.

Either that—or he was a marvelous actor.

But thoughts of Uncle Jake vanished when Effie phoned me the assay figures I was waiting for. I copied them down:

Lot A	Lot B
$4.19	$15.43
5.18	17.91
4.72	14.35
5.30	18.27
Averages $5.05	$16.49

"Effie," I said, "you've no idea how interesting that is. Goodbye, and thanks."

I thought it over and made up my mind. I would have to tell Cory. She was paying the bill and she was entitled to information, and it was better to give it to her in spoonfuls than in one indigestible lump at the end.

I found Cory in her private office checking smelter returns.

"How'd you like to take a walk in the country," I said.

She smiled. "All right."

THE truth was I wanted to get out where I knew there were no eavesdroppers within a mile.

Another reason was that it's not often a person runs into dirty work in my trade, and I felt the need of some clean mountain air.

"Where to?" she asked.

"Upstairs," I pointed to the aerial tramway running up the side of Umbrella Mountain.

Before the gravity chutes were cut through inside the mine, the tramway transported ore down to the mill, but now it was used only to carry the crews to the upper workings.

We sat in the cage and floated through the air to the top level, and then we got out and scrambled up another 500 feet to a ledge of rock. Cory flopped down on some dry moss and I sat beside her in the warm morning sunlight.

The bilious gray of the tailings dump was softened by distance and the dark green of the fir-clad hills was slashed with autumn scarlet and gold. The country was beautiful. I felt like abandoning the Dark Angel and starting right then and there on my three-month holiday.

CORY lay back on the moss with a little sigh of contentment. "Last time I was up here," she said lazily, "I shot a bear—broke his back with the first shot."

I groaned. "Cory, don't you ever have a weak moment when you feel you'd like to depend on some mere man?"

She chuckled and sat up. "I'm depending on you right now, Mike. Why did you want to come up here?"

I pulled the papers from my pocket and spread them out on the moss.

"Assay results. This—I pointed to the first set of figures—"is what I got from Riggs. Average value $4.82 per ton, from the chip samples Archie Trask and I got Tuesday afternoon."

She nodded. "That's about what it's been running."

"And this—I pointed to the 'Lot A' figures Effie had given me—"is from the second sampling, the ones I took myself and which we took into Driscoll to the express office. Average value $5.05—in other words, near enough to Riggs' figures not to matter."

She nodded again. "It just goes to show, Mike, you have a nasty, suspicious nature. And it shows, too, that I've been a stubborn fool about the whole thing."

"I'll settle for stubborn," I said. She smiled a weak sort of smile. "I don't see that it's much use your sticking around, Mike. That's about as final as anything. You could go on taking samples till doomsday but it wouldn't put commercial ore in the mine. I think I'll tell Doug Weyman to line up that lawyer with the 25 grand."

"Half a minute. There's something else here," I pointed to the assay results of "Lot B." "These," I said, "are figures for samples I took after I dropped you at your place Tuesday night. Average $16.49. In other words, assay figures for samples that haven't been tampered with."

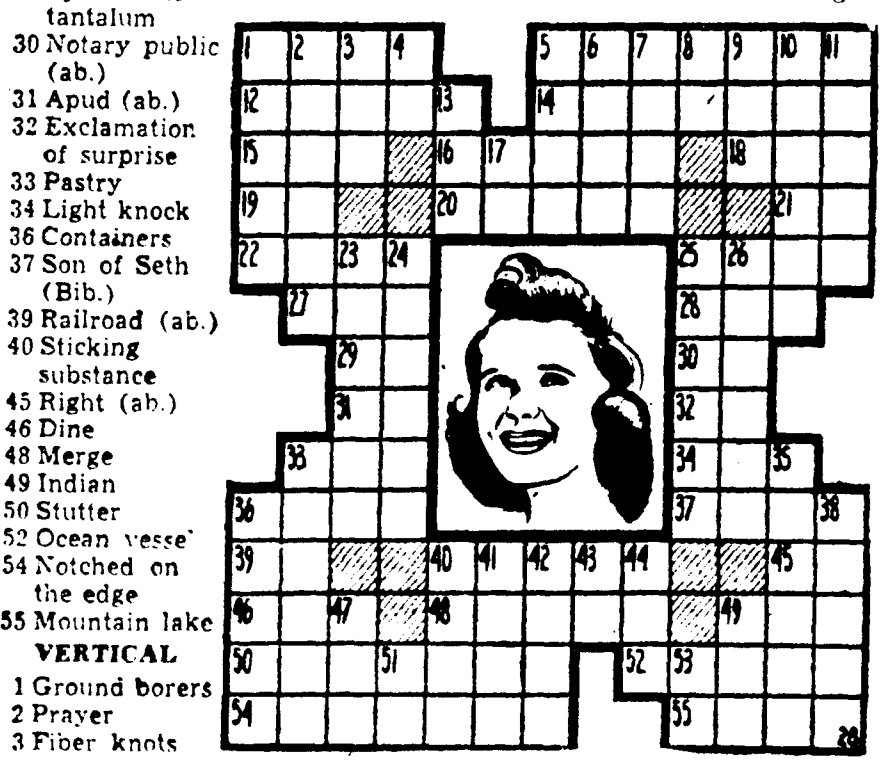

And then I told her about the business of the reef knots on the sample bags.

FIVE POLIO PRECAUTIONS ARE LISTED FOR PARENTS

Warning that the 1949 polio season is "just around the corner," the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis today issued a list of precautionary measures to be observed by those in charge of children during the epidemic danger period which usually runs from May through October, reaching its peak during the hot, mid-summer months. The five easy-to-follow health rules for children are:

1. Avoid crowds and places where close contact with other persons is likely.

2. Avoid over-fatigue caused by too active play or exercise, or irregular hours.

3. Avoid swimming in polluted water. Use only beaches or public pools declared safe by local health authorities.

4. Avoid sudden chilling. Remove wet shoes and clothing at once and keep extra blankets and heavier clothing handy for sudden weather changes.

5. Observe the golden rule of personal cleanliness. Keep food tightly covered and safe from flies or other insects. Garbage should be tightly covered and, if other disposal facilities are lacking, it should be buried or burned.

The National Foundation also listed the following symptoms of infantile paralysis: headache, nausea or upset stomach, muscle soreness or stiffness, and unexplained fever. Should polio strike in your family, call a doctor immediately. Early diagnosis and prompt treatment by qualified medical personnel often prevent serious crippling, the National Foundation pointed out.

The organization emphasized that fear and anxiety should be held to a minimum. A calm, confident attitude is conducive to health and recovery. Parents, it said, should remember that of all those stricken, 50 per cent or more recover completely, while another 25 per cent are left with only slight after effects.

If polio is actually diagnosed, contact the chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis serving your community. The chapter will pay that part of the cost of care and treatment which patient or family cannot meet.
